

Newsletter 11.

The Mgrs. Schraven Organisation has opened a website.

An artist made in wood a profile of Msgr. Schraven for the church in his birthplace Lottum.

During his visit to The Netherlands in 1925, Msgr. Schraven donated a chalice to a parish church in Tilburg. The chalice is described.

The underground successor of Msgr. Schraven in China has been released.

There are plans for a memorial chapel in the village where Msgr. Schraven grew up.

Report of a China day in Ossendrecht, a place where Sr. Adolphine, (martyr in 1900) grew up.

Newsletter 12.

The assistant Bishop of Roermond blessed the profile in wood of Msgr. Schraven in Lottum.

The patriotic successor of Msgr. Schraven, Bishop Taoran, passed away in China.

Sermon about Msgr. Schraven and fellow martyrs during the General Assembly of the Lazarists in Paris.

Newsletter 13.

Who is the Chinese Catholic of the year?

The Organisation received special memorials from the inheritance of a niece of Msgr.

Schraven, such as 200 letters, the bishop's cross and a little can with ashes of the martyrs.

The website uses several languages: English, French, German and Chinese.

The underground successor of Msgr. Schraven in China is threatened.

Report of an International Women day and the Organisation Religious against traffic in women.

Cooperation Msgr. Schraven Organisation and the Verbiest Insitution in Louvain.

Newsletter 14.

Program of the Msgr. Schraven day 2011.

Parish meeting in Broekhuizen vorst (where Msgr. Schraven grew up.) about the plans for a memorial chapel.

Information meeting about Msgr. Schraven and companions in the town hall of Horst.

Promotion of Msgr. Schraven and companions during a reading for an International party at Untermachtal in Germany.

Attention on the Provincial TV for Msgr. Schraven and the Organisation.

The underground successor of Msgr. Schraven in China , is admitted in hospital.

Newsletter 15.

A Chinese visit to Broekhuizen vorst and information about the plans there.

Msgr. Schraven and his cousin Msgr. Geurts and the relation between them, before and during their lives in China.
